DNAKE S-series Linux Door Station Release Notes of Version 3.1

1. Introduction

In this update, we have supported and improved more than 30 functions, especially the connection and communication with DNAKE cloud, and support for simultaneous registration of two SIP accounts, which greatly meets the application needs of customers.

- Firmware Version： 280D_1_3_1_6_GA_20250801 or above

- Applicable Model：

  S212/S213K/S213M-2/S213M-5/S215

2. New Features

- Supports configuration of whether to connect to DNAKE cloud

- Support registering two SIP accounts

- Supports resetting or restarting on the LCD screen

- Support configuration of device backlight mode

- Support configuration of automatic call-out time

- Support configuring different accounts for contacts

- Support configuration of contact styles on the LCD screen

- Support searching contacts on the LCD screen

- Support switching Relay on WebUI

- DHCP is enabled by default

- Support full card number reading

- Supports configuration of external Wiegand

- Support configuring different card readers to open different relays

- The Person function in the WebUI supports the creation of staff roles

- Support triggering unlocking and calling after DCI input signal

- Support configuring video stream account and password in WebUI

- Support configuring HTTP Events in WebUI

- Support configuring Web Relay Action in WebUI

- Support custom unlocking prompt tone in WebUI

- WebUI supports Japanese, Russian, and Ukrainian

3. Optimization

- Improved Concierge configuration function

- Improved WebUI contact list experience

- Enhance the user experience of the management cards

- Improve WebUI menus and configuration items

- Optimize the playback experience of IP addresses

- Optimize and improve the call and connection experience with DNAKE Cloud

4. Bug Fixes.

- Fix some bugs